NCLT starts insolvency proceedings against Today Homes Noida

The NCLT has initiated insolvency proceedings against NCR-based real estate firm Today Homes Noida Ltd on a petition filed by a group of homebuyers. The tribunal rejected the submission of the real estate firm that it has got four-year extension from UP Real Estate Regulation Authority (RERA) to complete the project, saying that IBC overrides provisions under the realty law. Today Homes Noida Ltd had contended that UP-RERA has extended its timeline till June, 2021 to complete the Ridge Residency housing project in sector 135, Noida.

NCLAT asks Raheja Developers to settle dispute with financial creditors

NCLAT has asked realty firm Raheja Developers to settle its dispute with homebuyers, after the company challenged the NCLT's order to initiate insolvency proceedings against it.

A three-member NCLAT bench, headed by Chairperson S J Mukhopadhaya, directed the IRP appointed by the NCLT not to issue any public notice and also not to constitute a committee of creditors.

The appellate tribunal's direction came over a petition filed by Raheja Developers challenging the order of NCLT that directed to initiate insolvency proceedings on a petition filed by flat buyers.

Changes in liquidation process under IBC not retrospective: IBBI

IBBI has clarified that the recent amendments to the norms on the liquidation process under the IBC will be applicable to those cases that commenced on or after July 25, which is when the amendments came into effect. The IBBI's clarification comes after stakeholders expressed difficulty in applying the amendment regulations to a liquidation process which commenced before July 25. The amendments to the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (Liquidation Process) Regulations stipulated that the liquidation process of any corporate debtor under IBC will have to be completed within a year of its commencement.
