Attempt Questions 31-40 based upon the following case study/transaction analysis:

Mr. X holds the first meeting of his team as Interim Resolution Professional of Jumpee Cosmetics Limited (“Jumpee”). An application was made to the Adjudicating Authority by a joint lending forum, led by Kuber Bank who are owed Rs.1.3 crore, which was satisfied that a default had occurred (Jumpee had not made any repayments on the principal debt for six months, having also defaulted for three months towards the end of last year).

The Adjudicating Authority communicated the order under section 5(a) of the IBC, 2016 (“the Code”) and sent notice of commencement of the corporate insolvency resolution process.

Richie, one of the senior members of X's team asks to see X privately and reveals at the meeting that his cousin is on the board of Jumpee. He explains that they have not seen each other socially for more than five years and have not discussed this matter. Richie is a forensic accountant, and a skilful strategist and X is very keen for him to remain on the team.

Jumpee deals in cosmetics for reconstructive surgery or as an alternative for surgical intervention and thus, holds several licenses for live animal research and the blending of volatile chemical compounds and the current status of the licenses needs to be ascertained.

Having completed an early “walk round” of the main site, and having talked to Jumpee’s main Security Officer, Mr. X selects a series of offices in the main building of the company’s headquarters and call a meeting of three members of his team.

With reference to the above-mentioned facts, answer the following questions:

31. With respect to the stated position of Richie, what shall be the reasonable step by Mr. X?
- a) Richie may remain on the team as his relationship with his cousin is a distant one and it is reassured that he has had no social contact with him in the past five years

  - c) Mr. X should file an application before NCLT seeking its approval
  - d) Mr. X should file an application before IBBI seeking its prior approval
- Ans. (a)

Attempt Questions 41-50 based upon the following case study/transaction analysis:

Rajhans Oils Pvt. Ltd. a closely held private company was engaged in the business of processing oilseeds for edible oils. It was established in 1988 under the dynamic leadership of Raman Prasad. Within a decade, Rajhans Oils Pvt. Ltd positioned itself as a leader in production of groundnut oil in the Western region of India with two premium brands.

In 2016 Raman Prasad had a severe heart attack and died without any succession plan in place. Pawan and Naveen, the two sons of Raman Prasad were also directors in the company with equal shareholding. After death of Raman Prasad, both brothers had strained relations over the management control which adversely affected the business of the company. With declining profit and turnover both the brothers were worried and decided to reach a family settlement whereby the control of the company was handed over to the elder brother Pawan. Naveen resigned as the director of the company and in lieu of the same he was entrusted with the management and control of another family firm Aragon Edibles, wherein both brothers were partners. Praveen, son of Pawan was inducted as director in the Company.

In 2018 Naveen wanted to withdraw unsecured loan given by him to the company because the company stopped paying him interest on the loan. Despite follow up Naveen was not paid either the principal or interest, which forced him to file an application under section 7 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code 2016. The Adjudicating Authority admitted the application and appointed an Interim Resolution Professional (IRP). Pawan refused to hand over the management control to the IRP on the plea that it was a family dispute, and they will settle it soon. He also asked the IRP not to make the public announcement. IRP tried to persuade Pawan citing the provisions of the Code and warned him that if he does not hand over control of the Corporate Debtor IRP will be forced to approach the Adjudicating Authority for appropriate orders. Thereafter Pawan allowed the IRP to take inventory of the assets and stocks after 15 days from the insolvency commencement date.

With reference to the above facts and other details provided in the question, answer the following questions:

41. Yes Bank, the only member of CoC holding 100 per cent voting share filed an appeal before the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) to set aside the order of Adjudicating Authority regarding admission of CIRP on the ground that its cash credit account with the company is regular and there is no default. Will the application of Yes Bank survive?
- a) Yes, as there is no default for the financial creditor having 100 per cent voting share.
  - b) No, a default has occurred u/s 7 of the Code and another creditor does not have any right to intervene.
  - c) Yes, as the account of Yes bank is likely to become NPA due to initiation of CIRP and object of the Code is maximisation of the value of assets of the corporate debtor.
  - d) Yes, the application for CIRP was filed by a related party financial creditor.
- Ans. (b)
42. IRP while taking over the control of assets was informed that Income Tax Dept has attached the raw material godown of the company due to default in payment of tax dues. What is the most appropriate course of action to be taken by the IRP?
- a) IRP should request the Income Tax Dept to file its claim, withdraw the attachment order citing the provisions of moratorium u/s 14 of the Code and if the Dept. refuses the request or delays it should file an application before the Adjudicating Authority.
  - b) IRP should immediately file an application before the Adjudicating Authority to vacate the attachment order.
  - c) IRP should deposit the outstanding demand and then request the Income Tax Dept to withdraw the attachment order.
  - d) IRP should inform the Income Tax Dept department to file its claim.
- Ans. (a)
43. Naveen filed a claim for unsecured loan of Rs. 1,75,00,000 along with interest @18 per cent per annum. IRP reviewed the accounts and found that there is no agreement to that effect on interest rate, neither there is any resolution of the Board of Director in this regard. IRP admitted the claim only for the principal amount. Is he right in his decision?
- a) IRP should have admitted the claim along with interest @ 6 per cent, in absence of any agreement.
  - b) IRP should have admitted the claim along with interest @ 18 per cent as claimed as Naveen had initiated the CIRP application which was admitted by the Adjudicating Authority.
  - c) IRP was right in admitting only the principal in absence of any evidence for the interest chargeable.
  - d) Promoters generally provide unsecured loans to tide over financial crunch, IRP should have favourably considered such gestures by admitting the interest claimed.
- Ans. (c)
44. Yes bank charged interest @ 9 per cent on the Cash credit limit availed by the company, as per the terms of sanction, even after the insolvency commencement date and justified it on the ground that if the interest is not charged the account has to be classified as NPA. Is the bank's claim legally justified?

- a) No, interest cannot be charged after insolvency commencement date. Bank must file claim as on the insolvency commencement date.
- b) Yes, if interest was not charged cash credit limit account would have been frozen by the bank and it would have hampered the going concern status of the corporate debtor.
- c) Yes, there was no default in the payment to Yes bank the account was regular therefore, Yes bank can continue charging interest.
- d) No, bank can charge interest @ 6 per cent for the purpose of ascertaining voting share.

Ans. (a)

45. On review of the bank accounts, IRP observed that sixteen months before the insolvency commencement date, a payment of Rs. 1 Crore has been made to a creditor Aragon Edibles which Pawan is a partner. Does it amount to preferential transaction under the code?
- a) No, it is a payment in the ordinary course of the business of the corporate debtor.
  - b) No, it is a payment for the material supplied by the creditor which has been sold and money realised by the Corporate Debtor.
  - c) Yes, it is given to a related party during the period of two years preceding the insolvency commencement date.
  - d) Yes, it created security interest in the property acquired by the corporate debtor.

Ans. (c)

46. IRP sent an email to the Advocate of the Corporate Debtor who was handling the matter on behalf of the promoters to provide IRP all the documents in his possession within 7 days. Was IRP justified in his action?
- a) No, Advocates are not covered under section 17(2)(d) of the Code.
  - b) Yes, all professionals are under obligation to provide all documents requested by the IRP.
  - c) Yes, IRP is an officer of the Court, and he can ask records from anyone.
  - d) No, Advocate is also an officer of the Court.

Ans. (a)

47. In the first meeting of the Committee of Creditors (CoC) Yes bank asked for reimbursement of the legal expenses incurred by it on filing application before NCLAT for setting aside the order of Adjudicating Authority (AA). CoC approved the same and was reimbursed by the IRP. Whether reimbursement by IRP was in compliance with the CIRP Regulations?
- a) Yes, IRP is obliged to make payment of all the expenses approved by the CoC.
  - b) No, IRP should have informed the CoC that the legal expenses incurred by Yes bank are not payable as insolvency resolution process cost and should not have placed it for approval of the CoC.
  - c) Yes, It is covered under expenses incurred on or by the interim resolution professional to the extent ratified under CIRP Regulation 33;

- d) Yes, it is covered under CIRP Regulation 33 (e) - other costs directly relating to the corporate insolvency resolution process and approved by the committee.

Ans. (b)

48. One of the operational creditors filed a claim of Rs. 2 crores on 01.06.2020 claiming that he could not file it due to Covid lockdown. RP refused to admit the claim on account of delay beyond 90 days from the insolvency commencement date. What is the option available to the operational creditor (OC)?
- OC has no right against the refusal to admit his claim by RP.
  - Hon'ble Supreme Court has extended limitation period due to Covid lockdown therefore, RP has no power to reject the claim for delay in submission.
  - OC can file an application u/s 61 of the Code before NCLAT.
  - OC can file an application u/s 60(5) of the Code before NCLT.

Ans. (d)

49. IRP sent the notice of the CoC meeting to Pawan but not to Naveen. Naveen protested this and represented that Pawan is also a related party unsecured financial creditor like him therefore, he is also entitled to receive notice of the CoC meeting. What is your opinion on the representation by Naveen?
- IRP should have sent notice of the meeting to both Naveen and Pawan as they are financial creditors and should have been invited to CoC meeting.
  - Related party financial creditor shall not have any right to representation, participation or voting in CoC meeting u/s 21(2) of the Code, therefore notice of the meeting should not have been sent to Pawan either.
  - IRP was justified in sending the notice to Pawan, in his capacity as a member of the suspended Board of Directors u/s 24(3) of the Code though he was also an unsecured financial creditor. Directors do not have any right to vote in CoC meeting.
  - IRP should have not discriminated between two financial creditors on the ground that one is a director and should have given similar treatment to both Naveen and Pawan by sending them CoC meeting notice.

Ans. (c)

50. The IRP files a report certifying constitution of a Committee of Creditors. By when this report must be filed to AA?
- The report must be filed within 23 days from the date of commencement of the corporate insolvency resolution process.
  - The report must be filed within 30 days from the date of commencement of the corporate insolvency resolution process.
  - The Committee of Creditors can give express permission for the report not to be filed, if they choose to keep the fact of their membership private.
  - There is no latest time to file this report, as long as the first meeting of Committee of Creditors is held within 35 days of the commencement of the process.

Attempt Questions 59-62 based upon the following case study/transaction analysis:

A Deed of partnership was executed between A and C wherein they both agreed to carry on business in partnership in the firm name of M/s National Kunstructions on the terms and conditions as recorded in the partnership deed. Clauses 6 and 7 of the partnership deed states that the duration of this partnership is not fixed, and it will, therefore, be a partnership at will. Each partner will be entitled to a share in the goodwill of the firm according to his share in the partnership. If any partner wishes to retire from the firm, he can do so by giving notice in writing to the other partners of his intention to retire after completion of the pending construction works and the retirement shall take effect after the pending construction works are completed, accounts in respect thereof are taken and the amount due at the foot of the accounts is paid or received by him, as the case may be. If the continuing partners take up any new construction work after receipt of such written notice from the retiring partner, the retiring partner shall not be liable in any manner in respect of such construction work. The retiring partner will have no claim in respect of the goodwill of the firm and the goodwill shall belong to the continuing partners according to the shares mutually agreed between them.

The partnership firm obtained a contract for the construction of road on National Highway No. 8 from M/s MAB Construction Partners but before the completion of construction of the said work, M/s MAB Construction Partners gave a notice to M/s National Kunstructions for dissolving the firm. This action was taken by M/s MAB Construction Partners because according to them various irregularities and illegalities were being committed by the partner A in the management of the business of the partnership firm.

With reference to the above-mentioned facts, answer the following questions:

Attempt Questions 73-75 based upon the following case study/transaction analysis:

Mr. S, an advocate, is in the business of providing professional services like filing of petitions before Tribunals and Courts. Mrs. B, wife of Mr. S, is a registered Insolvency Professional (IP) with the IBBI. Mr. S, in his capacity of an advocate, filed many applications relating to admission of corporate debtors before NCLT and his wife Mrs. B being an insolvency professional in her own professional capacity acts as Insolvency Professional in all the cases her husband takes up. Mrs. B within 6 months of becoming Insolvency Professional accepted 15 such assignments. She does not have any prior experience as an Insolvency Professional. While considering one such application for initiation of CIRP, NCLT observed that the fees charged by Mrs. B for acting as insolvency resolution professional is exorbitant. Mrs. B contracted with the applicant to not only act as Interim Resolution Professional but also as Resolution Professional in all the 15 assignments that she accepted.

With reference to the above-mentioned facts, answer the following questions:

63. Is Mrs. B right in accepting the assignments when it was her husband who proposed her name? Choose the most appropriate answer.
- a) Mrs. B is a professional in her own capacity. So, there is nothing wrong in her accepting assignments.
  - b) The IPs are bound by Code of Conduct, which expressly bars an IP to accept an assignment which is being undertaken by any of his relatives.
  - c) The Code of Conduct requires the IP to maintain complete independence in professional relationships. It is not correct on part of Mrs. B to accept assignments which affect her independence.
  - d) Mrs. B should have taken prior permission from IBBI before accepting such assignments to avoid any further disciplinary action

Ans. (c)

64. IBBI has issued a show cause notice to Mrs. B based on the adverse remarks made by NCLT. Choose the correct answer.
- a) IBBI does not have power to issue a show cause notice just because NCLT has made some observations.
  - b) IBBI should approach NCLT before issuing a show cause notice to confirm the remarks made by it.
  - c) IBBI is empowered by the Code to issue a show cause notice even without a complaint made against IP if it has reasonable grounds to believe IP has contravened any provisions.
  - d) Mrs. B should have taken prior permission from IBBI before accepting such assignments to avoid any further disciplinary action

Ans. (c)

65. Assume that out of the 15 assignments Mrs. B accepted, 2 are listed companies, 3 are unlisted public companies and 10 are private companies. Based on this assumption choose the correct answer.
- a) The number of assignments is within the limits prescribed under IBBI (Insolvency Professionals) Regulations, 2016.
  - b) There is no cap in number of assignments that an IP can accept. However, IP must refrain from accepting too many assignments if he is unable devote enough time.
  - c) An IP can accept only 10 assignments in total of which not more than three shall have admitted claims exceeding one thousand crore rupees each.
  - d) An IP cannot accept more than one assignment at a time in case of a listed company.
